30 MARATHONS IN 30 DAYS »

Jason hit the pavement October 2014 and ran a total of 859 miles across Texas (over 30 marathons in 30 days). Through this first-ever attempted record, Jason not only pushed the limit on endurance running, but fueled his passion to see an end to child trafficking, particularly in Texas. Jason is committed to educating, inspiring and raising funds to fight this social pandemic and calls for others to take action themselves and join the cause.

Inc.

What started out as a two man marketing firm in 2008 has blossomed into an impressive horizontally-integrated group of companies. Several of Jason's companies have been eligible for ranking on the Inc. 500 list of fastest growing privately owned business in the US. With over 20 million in revenue and 100 employees, Jason has proven he knows what it takes to grow an organization. From company culture to a proven leader in customer service and quality, these companies serve a diverse range of clients across countless industries. Committed to hard work and the best results, Jason's leadership and business saavy makes him what you'd call a serial entrepreneur.

AUTHOR & SPEAKER »

Although motivating and inspiring is at the foundation of what Jason strives to do, his primary objective is to leave his audiences with a solid, structured plan of setting monumental goals, rising above challenges and living life to the fullest. This comprehensive, strategy-driven take on life has led Jason to be a much sought after presenter through various platforms--professionally, educationally and athletically. All of which are built upon pillars of strength, humility, trial-and-error, ambition and above all, a smile on his face. With another book on the way, Your Spot on the Mountain highlights the real meaning of success and how each and every person can reach theirs.
